

ROBBED THE MAYOR

How the Festive Elm Grove Gang of Thieves Victimized

MAYOR MADDEN OF THE VILLAGE

While the Mayor was Out Assisting the Town Police in Running Down Thieves, the Latter Entered His Home and Got Away With a Bunch of $13—A Sad Case of Juvenile Delinquency in Wheeling Last Night.

Late Monday night, Mayor "Mike" Madden was out in the village, assisting the police in running to the ground a gang of thieves who have been entering residences out the pike in an indiscriminate manner during the past month or six weeks.

And just here's the joke on Madden. While he was away from home, cooperating with the police, the aforesaid gang of light-fingered gentlemen, coolly entered the mayor's residence and without ceremony extracted $13 from his best jeans. The mayor discovered his loss, upon returning from his fruitless chase early yesterday morning.

Other houses in and about Elm Grove entered late Monday night and early Tuesday morning, included the home of John Kiger, where $34 was secured, together with a gold watch. Mr. Kiger kept his roll under his pillow, but that didn't interfere with the gang's little game; they just got away with trousers and money while Kiger slept.

The homes of Mr. Hannibal Forbes and Dr. Cracraft, at the Grove, were also entered, but so far as could be learned, nothing was secured at either place.

Another place entered was Mr. Simpson's boarding house in Elm Grove.

Juvenile Delinquency.

Last night at 8:30 o'clock, Mr. Conrad Hirsch walked into the cigar store of M. E. Bashar, on Sixteenth street, almost within the shadow of the city building, to buy cigars. Mr. Bashar, at the time, was engaged at his desk, in the room at the rear. As Mr. Hirsch came in, Mr. Bashar walked out into the store. Just at this moment, a living bundle of rags—or what both men thought was such—shuffled out from behind the counter. It was a little colored girl, nine or ten years of age, and in her hand she had two dollar bills and three silver dollars. The little thing actually had the effrontery to claim she had come into the store with the money, but the open money drawer and its disarranged appearance gave the lie to her statement, and Mr. Bashar promptly took the money. He then allowed the girl to go, but ex-Squire Akle informed the police, and Lieutenant Supple hurried out after the young thief. He came up to the girl, accompanied by a boy companion, on the Postoffice corner, and they were brought to police headquarters. The girl's name was Annie Hearn, and the boy's name was Cash Brown, the latter known to the police on several former occasions of juvenile delinquency. The girl confessed she took the money, and that she had also entered the same store last Saturday and taken $3.12, an amount which Mr. Bashar said he missed that night. The girl implicated others in the thefts, including Mary Jane Miller, daughter of Mrs. Maggie Miller, who is said to reside at 1440 Chapline street; Dave Smith and Neil Robinson, colored boys, and George Bradford, a white boy. The Miller girl, she said, "put her up" to the thefts. The Miller girl and the Robinson and Smith boys were later arrested, but all were released on promises of future good behavior. Mr. and Mrs. Hearn, who were greatly distressed over the occurrence, promised to make good the $3.12 theft of last Saturday.

TROUBLE IN TEXAS.

Fitted Battle Between United States Colored Soldiers and Citizens.

LAREDO, Texas, Nov. 21.—Reports have reached here that there was a pitched battle last night, at Fort Ringgold, Rio Grande City, Texas, between a company of the Ninth United States Cavalry (colored) garrisoning the fort, and several hundred citizens, who attacked the post, shortly after dark. Three thousand shots are said to have been fired during the fight, but the casualties are not known. It is also said that all women and children have been sent away from Rio Grande City and that runners are out after reinforcements for the citizens. The military authorities are occupying the telegraph wires and full reports cannot be obtained. That the affair is a serious one, is indicated by the activity in military circles here. Major Thompson, in command at Fort McIntosh, to-day brought up all the Krag-Jorgensen ammunition in Laredo and is hurriedly loading a special train with mules, baggage, etc., to take all available forces here to the scene of the trouble, and a special train is en route here from San Antonio with a company from Fort San Houston on the way to Rio Grande City.

State Adjutant General Scurry, with a force of rangers, is expected here to-night, also on the way there.

Can't Stand Cold

Many children can't stand cold weather. The sharp winds pierce them, and the keen air hurts them. They have cold after cold, lose flesh, and spring-time finds them thin and delicate.

Scott's Emulsion will make such boys and girls hearty and strong. The body is better nourished, and they are better protected. The blood becomes richer, and that makes them warmer.

See and get all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Mrs. Thomas Aldridge, Villa Ridge, Ill., writes under date of Aug. 9th, '99: "I began taking Warner's Safe Cure last Spring, and have now taken three bottles; it has done me a wonderful lot of good, and I am satisfied it is a grand medicine. I know it would help many a suffering woman, if she would only use Warner's Safe Cure."

WINDOW GLASS JOBBERS.

Organization Completed by Which They Will Not Be Frozen Out—All Leading Jobbers to Become Members.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The window glass jobbers concluded their convention to-day. They organized an association to be known as the National Window Glass Jobbers' Association. H. Holbrook, Jr., secretary of the convention, said:

"The leading company making window glass is known as the American Window Glass Company, but there are a number of independent concerns also. Some of the latter were not taken into the company when the combination was effected, while others have been started since then. As a result there has been a prospect of a lively war between the American and the independent companies. This would mean falling prices during the coming season, and the position of the jobbers would be precarious in the extreme.

"Our plan was outlined to the officers of the American company, and received their distinctive approval. They said that they would much prefer to deal with a compact body, rather than with individual dealers. Our plans are not yet settled in detail, but in a general way it is understood that the association will act as a purchasing agency. The jobbers will give their orders to the association, and the latter will execute them. The individual jobber will have no direct dealings with the manufacturers whatever. The independent concerns will receive a certain portion of the orders and in that way the threatened war with the American company, we believe, will be averted. We also expect to be able to obtain concessions which individuals could hardly get.

"Fully fifty concerns were represented in the convention and many others wrote, expressing their willingness to join an association if one should be formed. In fact, practically all the leading jobbers in the trade have signified their intention to join."

AN AGED SWINDLER.

Charles Stewart Taken to Rhode Island for Trial.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 21.—Charles E. Stewart, the aged prisoner, who is accused of swindling at Woonsocket, R. I., was taken back to Rhode Island to-night in charge of three big detectives. The officers were afraid of habeas corpus proceedings, but no fight was made against extradition. The parting interview between Stewart and his wife was most pathetic. She is left here penniless, in a strange city and without friends. The thought that he was responsible for this deplorable state of affairs, more than anything else, induced Stewart to make an admission, which is considered a virtual confession that he was implicated with the gang of swindlers arrested in New York. The prisoner called for a lawyer and told him that half of the $1,000 deposited by Bennett, alias Knox, in the Tradesman's Bank, this city, belonged to him. He gave the counsel power of attorney and instructed him to secure this money for Mrs. Stewart.

This confession was apparently clinched by B. W. Gallup, of Woonsocket, who positively identified Stewart as the man who secured $3,000 on the worthless check. Mr. Gallup tells a story which explains in a measure how Stewart was enabled to swindle people in Woonsocket. He says Stewart assumed the religious role and at one of Evangelist B. Fay Miller's meetings in New York, renounced all former associates and became an enthusiastic convert. He was such an affable talker and of such dignified bearing that Mr. Miller was captivated. The evangelist placed Stewart in charge of a large amount of real estate in Woonsocket and had him conduct several extensive deals. Stewart played fair with his benefactor and made such a good record that he was not suspected when the time came for him to defraud.

FRENCH SENATE

Resumes Consideration of the Conspiracy Cases Yesterday.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The senate, sitting as a high court for the trial of the conspiracy cases, resumed to-day, the examination of M. Guerin, who insisted that the anti-Semitic League had not meddled with politics, but had merely "defended the working classes against the power of the Jews," and said that it had no connection with the Royalists. M. Guerin also insisted that he had never plotted against the republic. Adverting to the Fort Chabrol incident, M. Guerin expostulated upon the sufferings of the besieged and denied that he had ever fired ball cartridges at the police.

M. Dubuc, president of the League of Anti-Semitic Youth, was next examined. He declared the demonstrations of its members were directed purely against the revision of the Dreyfus case. Counsel for M. Dubuc said he wished for an explanation of certain charges against his client. The public prosecutor refused to give the required information, which led to violent protests from the Rightist senators, whereupon M. Pellieres, president of the senate adjourned the proceedings until to-morrow.

Married Outside of Royalty.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Nov. 21.—The wedding of former Prince Clarence II, of the Mosquito Territory, and Irene Morrice took place to-day. Recent mail

BOXING.

Mike Tunney, who has not appeared in the roped arena since his draw with Jimmy Smith, at Youngstown, Ohio, about a year ago, is rounding into fine fettle for his go with Eddie Gardner at Wheeling next Saturday night. He is now down to weight, and will enter the ring at 123 or 124 pounds, and promises to give the Wheeling crack a great fight. Mike will be accompanied by about one hundred admirers, and will leave Pittsburgh next Saturday afternoon for the scene of the battle, and confident of victory. In training yesterday, Mike burst a punching bag at the end of the ninth round and skipped the rope for nearly an hour. He says he never felt better.—Pittsburgh Post.

The Metropolitan club has matched Frank Collier, of New York, a welter-weight recommended by Hughey Arnold, who saw him fight in the east, and Eddie Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, for December 11. Arnold believes Collier will beat Eddie Kennedy. He will have to be a dandy to do it.

Now They're Matched.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—James J. Jeffries and James J. Corbett were, this afternoon matched to fight a twenty-five round go or to a finish, if the law permits, on or about September 15 next. The fight will be under Queensberry rules.

FOOT BALL.

The announcement that, Bethany college would face Wheeling for the Thanksgiving game was received with a great deal of favor, for since these teams put up a close battle once this season, and from the fact that both will line up stronger than before, everyone is eagerly awaiting the game. The students will invade Wheeling in force that day and will bring along their glee club, and local alumni will add their presence and a liberal display of green and white, Bethany's colors.

There will be no game here next Saturday. Washington was thought of for another whirl but the game wouldn't draw sufficiently and to bring an aggregation from a greater distance was out of the question.

After the Thanksgiving game, an effort will be made to bring Wheeling and the Acmes, of Steubenville, together for the championship of the upper Ohio valley.
